

Good News Clinics

JOB DESCRIPTION FOR NURSE PRACTITIONER

1. Provides anticipatory guidance, screening, health education to patients to promote and maintain health.
2. Evaluates data obtained through a systematic approach to history taking and physical assessment. Initiates treatment for patients within the nurse practitioner's scope of practice and protocol agreement. Consult with supervising physician as needed.
3. Perform comprehensive health assessment including obtaining a complete and accurate health history from the patient or significant other; performing a complete and/or problem focused and accurate physical examination; and administering selected measures of physical, cognitive and psychosocial testing in accordance with standardized guidelines.
4. Order/ perform selected diagnostic test and procedures as indicated by patient's identified health problem.
5. Interprets clinical findings and diagnostic findings to develop a complete and accurate differential diagnoses/ health care problem list.
6. Identifies and uses available resources in meeting health care and educational needs of the patients, including by not limited to consultation with other medical providers and allied health professionals.
7. Plans appropriate care utilizing community resources and acts as a liaison by relaying information necessary for continuity of care to other health professionals and health agencies.
8. Prescribes, coordinates, delegates and evaluate care.
9. Instructs patients about health or defined health problems
10. Prepare all documentation of patient encounters, including communication with other providers regarding care of patient to include timeliness, legibility, accuracy, content and signature.
11. Participates in quality assurance activities
12. Participates in obtaining data for grant requirements.
13. Serves as preceptor for students rotating in the clinic.
14. Promotes guest relations; anticipates and responds to the needs of others; provides assistance in a courteous and quick manner; treats others with care and respect maintaining privacy, confidentiality and dignity, in accordance with HIPPA guidelines
15. Adheres to the mission, values and vision of Good News Clinics.
16. Maintains a professional appearance and a clean safe environment.
17. Other duties as assigned.
18. Serves as resource to clinical staff. Participates in identifying learning needs to promote quality care.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Education: Masters degree or doctorate in an accredited nursing nurse practitioner program

Licensing: Current, unrestricted license to practice as an APRN in the state of Georgia.

CONTACT:

Resume and cover letter may be sent to Liz Coates, Executive Director

lcoates@goodnewsclinics.org